

Clinical Risk Assessment

Some of the content included in the Clinical Risk Assessment Training Course discusses the fundamental reasons why risk assessment is important, the process of evaluating and recording risk and ultimately how health and safety in the workplace should be every employee's responsibility.

Programme/Course Content:

- Relevant Legislation
- Aims and objectives of a risk assessment
- Stages of risk assessment
- "Suitable and sufficient"
- Risk weighting
- Controlling risk
- Risk assessment recording
- Implementation
- Monitor and review
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Those operating in a health and social care setting

Accreditation: Our Clinical Risk Assessment training course can be externally accredited by HABC and be awarded with the Level 3 Award in Risk Assessment (QCF).

Further information: We craft our courses and tailor our teachings in accordance with the specific needs of each business or delegate that comes our way – give our team a call today to discuss the ideal solution for your training and development needs.